Truist Loses Trio of Veteran Traders From Municipal Bond Team.

Three members of Truist Financial Corp’s municipal bond department have departed the Charlotte-based bank.

Scott Wooster, a sales manager, and trader Daniel Stewart have left the firm, according to broker registration records. Vinh Nguyen has also departed, according to people with knowledge of the matter, who asked not to be identified because they’re not authorized to speak publicly.

The trio of departures comes after Jamie Doffermyre, who served as Truist’s head of public finance and origination and syndicate, left in September.
