S&P General Obligation Medians For School Districts: December 2023

S&P Global Ratings derives the general obligation (GO) school district medians from rating reviews completed under its “GO Debt” criteria published Oct. 12, 2006. We derive the school district medians from the 5,148 school districts we rated as of December 2023.

We present the medians by rating category. These medians do not pertain to municipalities and counties. We are publishing separate GO county and municipality median reports concurrently with this article.
