ARPA SLFRF Reporting Language: What to Know - NLC

Co-authored by Claire Chan, the Manager of Research and Federal Relations at the Georgia Municipal Association

The April 30, 2025 reporting deadline for the American Rescue Plan Act's (ARPA) State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds (SLFRF) is rapidly approaching, and many local governments have questions about how to accurately and effectively draft their reporting language. Below, we provide guidance on frequently asked questions (FAQs) and offer examples of what to do — and what to avoid.

Project Descriptions: Key Guidelines

Project descriptions must be detailed enough to convey the major activities involved and must be between 50 and 250 words.
