SIFMA Committee Guide: Forums for Institutional Knowledge and Expertise.

SIFMA is a member-driven trade association that represents a broad spectrum of the financial markets. Through SIFMA issue-specific member committees and working groups, thousands of industry participants gather to share their views and ensure their collective voice is heard by governing entities throughout the world. Read through our Committee Guide and learn the many ways SIFMA Committees share subject-matter knowledge and expertise with industry colleagues and work with policymakers, lawmakers, and regulators around the country and across the globe.
