The Bond Buyer's Midwest Municipal Market Symposium, June 30 at the InterContinental Chicago Magnificent Mile, will feature presentations explaining market changes and what other evolutions could be ahead—as Congress re-evaluates the market's historic tax preferences and investors and regulators work to improve its efficiency.

Topics to be addressed include:

- The US and Midwest Economic Outlook and the Outlook for Interest Rates
- Municipal Credit Quality and the Bond-Ratings Process
- Regulatory changes impacting issuers and their bond documents
- Innovative financing structures for infrastructure development
- Additional topics to be developed in response to market events
