Municipal Finance Law Since 1971

Public Finance Associate

Sherman & Howard L.L.C. seeks an associate attorney to join its busy public finance practice in Denver, Colorado. We are active in Colorado, Nevada, New Mexico, Idaho, Montana, Arizona and other Western States and our firm maintains eleven offices in six states.

Our attorneys work as bond counsel, underwriter's counsel, disclosure counsel, lender's counsel and in other roles on a wide range of transactions including governmental bonds of all types, housing bonds and qualified private activity bonds. Our associates take on substantial responsibility for conducting due diligence, attending meetings, preparing bond documents and advising clients.

Our ideal candidate would have one to three years of experience in public finance, however, experience in other transactional practice areas will also be considered, particularly relating to securities. Bar admission to Colorado is preferred but not required. We offer a competitive salary and full benefits.

Please apply to recruit@shermanhoward.com, including a resume, transcript and a cover letter stating your qualifications for this position and why you are interested in public finance work in the Rocky Mountain West.
