IRS PLR: City Agreement to Deliver Water to Power Company Won't Result in Private Business Use of Bonds.

The IRS ruled that a city's agreement to deliver water to a company won't cause tax-exempt bonds used by a governmental entity to construct a new reservoir to meet the section 141(b) private business tests, finding that the agreement isn't an output contract and even though the company will receive a special economic benefit from the project, it won't be making private payments for it.
