California Wildfires Spur New Real Estate Development Guidelines.

- State attorney general unveils guidance to mitigate fire risk
- 'The climate crisis is here, we must adapt to that,' AG says

California Attorney General Rob Bonta announced guidelines for local governments weighing real estate development proposals to protect against the growing hazard of wildfires, telling municipalities his suggestions could help them avoid costly litigation and save lives.

At a news conference on Monday, Bonta outlined best practices and mitigation measures to help municipalities shape projects while taking into account wildfire ignition and emergency access and evacuation to protect residents and the environment.
