

Bond Case Briefs

Municipal Finance Law Since 1971

Conning Releases 2024 State of the States Municipal Credit Report, Outlook Shifts to "Stable" in Anticipation of Return to Pre-Pandemic Fiscal Conditions

As Costs Rise, States Should Prioritize Essential Spending in Coming Budget Cycle

Interactive Exhibits Enable Deeper Understanding of Metrics

- Outlook for state credit quality upgraded to “Stable” versus 2023 outlook of “Declining.”
- State rainy-day funds remain at near-record levels but rising costs are pressuring state budgets.
- Northeast, Great Plains and Great Lakes regions benefited from a slowing of pandemic migration patterns to the west and south.
- Interactive graphics enable a closer look at the report’s 13 economic, socioeconomic and financial metrics by state and region.

Continue reading.

Tue, Jun 4, 2024