Municipal Finance Law Since 1971

S&P Warns Chicago That Pension Cost-Hike to Pressure Budget.

Takeaways by Bloomberg AI

- S&P Global Ratings warns that a new law aimed at raising pension benefits for some Chicago police and firefighters risks further straining the city's finances.
- The new law is expected to add more than $11.6 billion to Chicago's long-term net pension liability, according to city estimates cited by S&P.
- S&P analysts state that the prognosis for Chicago's long-term fiscal health has weakened, and that substantial budget-balancing measures will be integral to the city's credit stability.
