ELECTIONS - MISSISSIPPI

Randle v. Ivy

Supreme Court of Mississippi - March 12, 2026 - So.3d - 2026 WL 696422

Opponent in primary for city marshal petitioned for review of political party's determination that candidate met residency requirements to appear on primary ballot.

The Circuit Court entered order finding candidate unfit as a primary candidate. Candidate appealed.

The Supreme Court held that:

- Candidate's appeal was moot, and
- Substantial evidence supported finding that candidate had not lived in city for two years before primary election.
