

Bond Case Briefs

Municipal Finance Law Since 1971

IRS: Trust's Income Excludable From Gross Income.

The IRS has ruled that the income of a trust established to fund post-employment health benefits for the employees of a government entity was excludable from gross income under section 115(1) because the income was derived from the exercise of an essential government function. Citations: Letter Ruling 201310026.

Copyright © 2024 Bond Case Briefs | bondcasebriefs.com