

Bond Case Briefs

Municipal Finance Law Since 1971

Obama Renews Public-Works Push.

President Barack Obama renewed his push for investing in roads, bridges and other infrastructure upgrades Friday, traveling to Florida to make the case for tax incentives and other efforts aimed at attracting private dollars to public works projects.

Calling it the “Rebuild America Partnership,” the president laid out a plan that he said would leverage private and public capital for infrastructure projects and generate jobs.

<http://online.wsj.com/article/SB10001424127887323501004578390851308236448.html>

Copyright © 2024 Bond Case Briefs | bondcasebriefs.com