IRS: Comments Sought on EO Reporting Requirement Guidance.

The IRS has requested public comment on information collections under Rev. Proc. 98-19, which provides guidance to tax-exempt organizations on exceptions to the reporting and notice requirements under section 6033(e)(1) and the tax imposed by section 6033(e)(2); comments are due by June 11, 2013.

Direct all written comments to Yvette Lawrencde, Internal Revenue Service, room 6129, 1111 Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20224. Requests for additional information or copies of the revenue procedure should be directed to Katherine Dean at Internal Revenue Service, Room 6242, 1111 Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20224, or at (202) 622-3186, or through the Internet at kathernie.b.dean@irs.gov.

Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the collection of information; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and (e) estimates of capital or start-up costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of services to provide information.
