Nunn v. State

District Court of Appeal of Florida, Fourth District - June 12, 2013 - So.3d - 2013 WL 2494161

Defendant was convicted of sexual battery on a child under twelve, six counts of lewd and lascivious molestation of a child under twelve, and lewd and lascivious exhibition in the presence of a child under sixteen. Defendant appealed.

The District Court of Appeal held that officer's recording of controlled telephone call was not rendered unlawful under Florida Security of Communications Act when it was discovered that the crimes occurred beyond officer's jurisdiction, as officer had a good faith belief that she was investigating a crime that occurred within her jurisdiction when the call was made.
