

Bond Case Briefs

Municipal Finance Law Since 1971

- IRS Publishes Final Regs on Arbitrage Rebate Overpayments.
- NABL Comments in Response to MSRB Regulatory Notice 2014-16.
- Ballard Spahr: SEC Charges City Mayor as a Control Person in Allen Park, Michigan, Enforcement Action.
- Mintz Levin: SEC Introduces “Control Person” Liability as Enforcement Action Weapon in Claim Against Municipal Officer for Misleading Bond Offering Document.
- MSRB, FINRA Propose Principal Trade Disclosure.
- S&P: U.S. Public Finance Rating Improvement Cools in the Third Quarter After the Local Government Criteria Implementation Period.
- NAST-NASACT Workgroup Issues Letter Regarding Changes to SEC Rule 2a-7 and the Impacts on Local Government Investment Pools.
- Newest Version of Two Deskbooks Now Available.
- GASB: On the Horizon.
- NABL Ethics Teleconference.
- And finally, the appeals court in Morawek v. City of Bonney Lake ruled this week that a hearing examiner’s finding that owner’s dog (Scout) killed neighbor’s cat (Oriel) without provocation was not supported by substantial evidence, as required to uphold dangerous dog designation. Dogs everywhere are shocked to learn that the mere existence of cats does not constitute provocation per se.