

Bond Case Briefs

Municipal Finance Law Since 1971

FASB Refines Proposed Disclosure Rules for Lessee Accounting: Tax Analysts

The Financial Accounting Standards Board on January 21 considered changes to a package of proposed disclosure requirements for lessee accounting in an effort to provide adequate leasing information to financial statement users without imposing undue costs on public and nonpublic business entities.

Continue reading. (Subscription required)

Copyright © 2024 Bond Case Briefs | bondcasebriefs.com