- NABL Issue Price Teleconference.
- MCDC: What Comes Next For Muni Underwriters?
- SEC Makes Point with MCDC Settlements.
- The Phone Call That Could Help Governments' Credit Ratings.
- Proposed Bonds to Encourage Public Private Partnerships and Improve Infrastructure: Butler Snow.
- Treasury and IRS Re-Propose Issue Price Rules.
- NABL Presses Treasury to Ease Public Approval Requirement for PABs.
- Town of Groton v. Commissioner of Revenue Services – Supreme Court of Connecticut holds that refuse removal fees that municipality charged to commercial, industrial, and income producing end users on a revenue-neutral basis did not constitute a sale for "consideration" subject to state sales tax.
- And finally, we cannot conceive of a better way to open an opinion than, "[Police officer] heard some loud music and determined that it was coming from a motorcycle parked at 251 E. 72nd. A large man, Jessie Scott, was dancing in the yard and working on his truck." Honestly, what's not to love? Thank you, Jessie, you were not tased in vain.
