MSRB Revises Effective Date for Amendments to Transaction Reporting.

The Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (MSRB) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) a rule change to revise the effective date of several amendments to MSRB Rule G-14, on transaction reporting.

The new effective date of the amendments will be July 18, 2016 to align with the implementation of similar Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) reporting requirements. The MSRB, in its filing, designated this revision for immediate effectiveness. Read the regulatory notice. View the SEC filing.

The amendments to Rule G-14 will enhance the post-trade price transparency information provided through the MSRB's Real-Time Transaction Reporting System (RTRS). View the new rule.
