NABL Submits Recommendations for 2016-2017 Priority Guidance Plan.

On April 7, the National Association of Bond Lawyers submitted recommendations for inclusion in the 2016-2017 Guidance Priority List in response to IRS Notice 2016-26. The list included updating the management and service contract safe harbors, issuing clarifying guidance concerning the application of the final allocation and accounting regulations in section 1.141-6 of the Treasury Regulations, revising and finalizing the proposed June 2015 regulations concerning issue price matters under section 148, and revising and re-proposing the February 2016 regulations concerning the definition of political subdivision.
