- California practitioners and eminent domain aficionados (and who isn't?) will want to take a look at City of Perris v. Stamper.
- Both Sherman & Howard and Kennedy & Graven are in the market for public finance attorneys and have placed ads in our Classifieds section. Although we prefer to advertise used futons, I suppose that certain exceptions can be made. Please feel free to avail yourselves of this service. There's no charge.
- And finally, Delusions of Leverage is brought to you this week by Bingman v. City Of Dillingham, in which taxpayers negotiated to redeem their foreclosed property by offering the city a tax-free promissory note that matured in 20 years. "We're gonna make them an offer they can easily refuse."
