

Bond Case Briefs

Municipal Finance Law Since 1971

S&P: Dark Store Tactic By Big-Box Retailers Could Pressure U.S. Municipal Budgets And Credit Quality.

Household name big-box retailers and home improvement stores such as Lowe's, Home Depot, Sam's Club, Wal-Mart, Target, and Kohl's have begun using a controversial new legal tactic to appeal their assessed valuations and reduce their property tax bills in several states across the U.S.

Continue Reading

Jan. 29, 2018

Copyright © 2024 Bond Case Briefs | bondcasebriefs.com