Innovative Financing for a 21st Century Infrastructure.

BDA Hosted Roundtable Early 2019

As the 116th Congress kicks off in early 2019, attention will turn to major policy initiatives that were unfinished in the previous session and at the top of this priority list will be infrastructure.

The BDA is in the process of planning a D.C. infrastructure event in early 2019 to further its position as a thought leader on infrastructure finance – from a Main Street perspective. As key details emerge such as date and location in Washington, D.C. and featured speakers, the BDA will provide updates.

Background

The House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee released a discussion draft this summer, outlining at a very high-level, priorities for a future package. A focus of the draft was innovative financing mechanisms, including public-private-partnerships. The BDA views this as an opportunity to advance member priorities: PAB's, AR and continued protection of tax-exempt municipal bonds.

This event will not only help drive the narrative for the need of a sweeping infrastructure overhaul, but allow the BDA to position itself as a policy expert for this discussion.
