Bond Case Briefs

Municipal Finance Law Since 1971

S&P: U.S. States May See Negative Revenue Effects From Aging Demographic Trends.

In S&P Global Ratings' opinion, the aging of the U.S. population has significant implications for future state tax revenues. State governments will need to adapt their revenue structure and service levels to accommodate the growing elderly population.

Continue Reading

Feb. 14, 2019

Copyright © 2026 Bond Case Briefs | bondcasebriefs.com