Bond Case Briefs

Municipal Finance Law Since 1971

- Ed. Note: It has come to our attention that we somehow managed to completely skip Issue 26 of the newsletter and, rather, went directly from Issue 25 – published on 6/25 – to Issue 27 – published on 7/2. Preliminary findings from our investigation into this incident are as follows: We're idiots.
- Ed. Note II: We have officially (It's official when we say it's official!) entered the traditional summer financial market doldrums and, consequently, won't have much to report in the coming weeks. We invite you to take this extra time to contemplate your poor choices w/r/t weekly subscription-based public finance products. Wait! No! More time with your families! More time with your families! Always screw that one up.
- Unanswered Questions from the April Regulatory Guidance on Opportunity Zones: Pepper Hamilton.
- How Federal Tax Reform Is Changing Government Borrowing.
- Bank Not Covered for Claims Over Alleged Bond Market Manipulation.
- And finally, A Firm Grasp of the Obvious is brought to us this week by Fiano v. Old Saybrook Fire Company No. 1, Inc., in which the Captain of the local fire department testified that, "Depending on the incident, it can be advantageous for firefighters to be at the firehouse so that they are available to respond immediately to any calls that come in." You're in good hands, Old Saybrook.