Ethical Considerations in a Digital World: Live NABL Webinar

With the COVID-19 pandemic, new ethical and client confidentiality considerations have surfaced regarding the expanded use of email, working from home and the use of home computer networks, online meetings and platforms, and the use of mobile technology and phones. On Tuesday, December 8, 2020, 1:00 - 2:30pm EST, NABL will host a live Zoom webinar, "Ethical Considerations in a Digital World: Why These Matter to Your Public Finance Practice," that will discuss the rapidly changing technology environment within a public finance practice.

The panelists, Jason Akers, Foley & Judell L.L.P, New Orleans, LA, and Ryan K. Callender, Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP, Cleveland, OH, will take an in-depth look at the ethical issues surrounding bond counsel practice in municipal finance transactions and the application of the Model Rules of Professional Conduct to selected topics. The webinar will have an emphasis on cybersecurity and the risks associated with everyday technology, especially as they relate to the changing workplace settings surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic.

This is the perfect opportunity for you to secure your ethics and technology CLE credits before the end of the year. The live webinar is $195 for members and $295 for non-members.

CLE Information: NABL has applied for and anticipates receiving between 1.5 and 1.8 hours of ethics credit in states that accredit live webinars and in Florida and North Carolina that offer technology credit
