Municipal Finance Law Since 1971

- Ed. Note: A technological meltdown prevented us from distributing last week's newsletter. Following the (literal) sacrifice of assorted farm animals, as well as the (literal) sacrifice of assorted IT folk, we're back in biz. We apologize for the (literal) hassle.

- And finally, It's A Goddamn Paddle! is brought to us this week by In re Wright & Boester Conditional Use Application, in which the Supreme Court of Vermont referred to a building (A Goddamn Boathouse!), "used to store canoes, kayaks, and related accoutrements." Related accoutrements, you say? Rather than compile last week's newsletter, we embarked on a comprehensive, historic review of the nautical canon, from Homer's Odyssey to Trimmer's How to Avoid Huge Ships. Our preliminary conclusion is that this is indeed a novel usage. Well, other than Farragut's immortal, "Damn the accoutrements! Full speed ahead!"
