Fitch: Home Price Increases Have Varied Effect on Property Taxes

Fitch Ratings-New York-03 December 2021: Local governments in some states are better positioned to benefit in the near to medium term from strong home price growth, says Fitch Ratings. The potential revenue impact depends on a municipality's property tax regime, home price trends and the historical relationship between home price trends and property taxes, which reflects tax policy and government action. Fitch ranked states according to the possible tax revenue impact based on an index of these three factors.

Home price growth has surged in all states but has been uneven. Municipalities in states near the top of the ranking may see a boost to property taxes because of higher home price growth, the contribution of property taxes to total revenues and tax policies that capture this growth.

Property taxes are a smaller portion of overall tax revenues for municipalities in states ranked near the bottom. These states have had less exuberant home price growth, and there is little or no correlation between historic property taxes and house prices, partially due to atypical valuation cycles, rate limits and policy choices.
