

Bond Case Briefs

Municipal Finance Law Since 1971

What Are Baby Bonds, And How Do They work?

- A “baby bond” is a bond with a face value that falls below $1,000 — typically $25 or $50.
- Anyone can invest in baby bonds as long as they meet the associated minimum requirement.
- Baby bonds are unsecured, meaning you aren’t guaranteed payment in the event of a default.

Continue reading.

businessinsider.com

by Rickie Houston

Jan 5, 2023, 1:49 PM

Copyright © 2024 Bond Case Briefs | bondcasebriefs.com