Gov. Kathy Hochul expands county program amid raft of cyber announcements

New York state will provide select cities in most counties with free cybersecurity tools, Gov. Kathy Hochul said in her annual State of the State agenda Tuesday.

The two largest municipalities in each New York county, except for those comprising New York City, will be given access to cybersecurity technology from CrowdStrike Holdings free of charge, she said.

“My administration is taking significant steps to make sure that local governments have tools and resources to address the debilitating cyberattacks to which they are often the victim,” Hochul said.
