Ruppersberger, Co-Chair and Founder of the House Municipal Finance Caucus, to Retire.

Maryland Democrat Representative Dutch Ruppersberger, founder and co-chair of the bipartisan House Municipal Finance Caucus, announced he will step down at the end of his current term.

“Clearly he will leave a void,” said Brett Bolton, vice president of federal legislative and regulatory policy at Bond Dealers of America. “He has always been on the Hill and a champion for the industry.”

Ruppersberger founded the House Municipal Finance Caucus in 2016 and has served as its Democratic co-chair since then. The caucus consists of a bipartisan group of lawmakers - 30 as of the latest count - who have pledged to support public finance priorities in Congress.
