TAX - OREGON

D.E. Shaw Renewable Investments, LLC v. Department of Revenue

Supreme Court of Oregon - October 5, 2023 - 371 Or. 384 - 537 P.3d 529

Taxpayers, which operated wind farms that were centrally assessed by the Department of Revenue and which had persuaded the Department that the valuation methodology that the Department had used to assess that property for a particular tax year had been flawed, appealed from the Department's refusal of their request that the Department use the corrected methodology to also reduce the assessed value of their property for two previous tax years.

The Tax Court entered summary judgment for the Department. Taxpayers appealed.

The Supreme Court held that the statute governing the correction of errors in the certified assessment roll precluded the Department from exercising its general statutory authority to reduce the assessed value of taxpayers' property for the two previous tax years at issue.

Statute governing the correction of errors in the certified assessment roll precluded the Department of Revenue from exercising its general statutory authority to reduce the assessed value of taxpayers' property—which consisted of wind farms that were centrally assessed by the Department—for two prior tax years, even though taxpayers had persuaded the Department that valuation methodology that it had used to assess their property for different, but more recent, prior tax year had been flawed; taxpayers did not request a conference with the Department's director to challenge the Department's valuation opinion before the tentative assessments for those two prior years became final, and statute governing correction of errors prohibited the director from correcting an error in the valuation judgment that was an error in the Department's opinion of the value of property.
