What the 2024 Election Could Mean for Transportation Policy.

Local taxes to fund public transit fared well on Election Day. But state and federal election results could alter the outlook for infrastructure investment long term.

In Brief:

- Voters backed most of the local transportation funding measures on ballots last week, approving around $25 billion in revenue for public transit.
- Other election results could signal potential shifts in policies related to electric vehicles and transportation emissions.
- Congress faces longer-term challenges over the solvency of the Highway Trust Fund, which pays for most transportation infrastructure.
